WHO WE ARE

The Franciscan Network for Migrants is a network of franciscan-hearted people, lay and religious, who offer support, humanitarian assistance and welcome to people displaced from their countries of origin.

WHAT WE DO

- Guidance for getting involved with helping migrants and refugees in your community
- Franciscan Border Encounters to experience first hand the migration reality
- Opportunities to meet other franciscans who are working in migration and share information
- Advocacy and human rights monitoring
- Educational resources, news and articles from our members throughout the Americas
- Opportunities to volunteer on the border and at shelters in Mexico
- Migrant services -- shelters, our Virtual Migrant House, materials, and videos
- Training and capacity-building

WE WOULD LOVE TO HEAR FROM YOU

Let us know what you are doing to help migrants and refugees. Or if you or your ministry need help getting started, please contact Lori Winther at

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Network is to promote and defend the dignity of each person in order to ensure best practices of encounter with, service to, and advocacy on behalf of the migrant person.
